PERILS OF THE HIGHWAY! Exciting Adventures of a Sewing Machine Man.

How(e) He Escaped a Watery Grave. Mr. Wm. W. Stillman the popular and efficient Agent of the Howe Sewing Machine, for this district, in his prompt.

last week came very near losing his life by drowning. The circumstances as reported to us are substantially as follows: Mr. Stillman left Hillsboro on Wednesday morning last for Pittsboro, in a covered Sewing Machine wagon, drawn by one horse. Hehad in his wagon two of the Howe Machines for delivery, and all of his own personal effects in the way of clothing, tricks, trinkets, &c.

The waters on his route were "up and raging" but he made very fair progress until arriving at the mouth of Pokeberry (reek, where it empties into Flat River.

The creek is spanned at this point by a bridge, eighteen feet above the usual bead. This bridge like its most of country bridges is in bad repair, without side banisters or poles, holes in the bottom and generally rough from wearand age. The water was nearly to the planks but Mr. S. apprehended no difficulty in crossing. About middle way the bridge, the horse shied from a lot of floating drift and stepping on the outer edge of the planks, was tilted, wagon and all into the eighteen feet water below. Horse, wagon, Stillman, Machines and all, of course went under the surging waters. With a remarkable presence of mind, Mr. Stillman adapted himself to the situation and put his best wits to work to get out of the difficulty. He was inside the wagon, under the water and incumbered with all his clothing, a position in which doubtless most of us would have given up in despair. But not so with our plucky hero. While under the water he made the necessary calculation as to the height, breadth and extent of the wagon covering, and the surest means of coming to the surface of the water at one bound. He succeeded, and on coming to the surface saw only the head of his horse drifting towards the river about ten feet from him. Being an expert swimmer he reached the bank in safety and proceeded to a mill close by where he procured assistance and returned to the rescue of his wagon, having given up the horse as lost.

Strange to say on his return the horse's head was still above water and struggling for the shore. By almost superhuman efforts the horse was finally rescued though unable to move from the banks for several hours. The wagon was also recovered but the machines and trunk with its valuable contents of clothing, love letters, &c, are now a museum for the Mud cats and Red horses of Flat River.

Mr. Stillman on his arrival in our city received the hearty congratulations of his many friends on his miraculous escape. He is having the necessary repairs made to his wagon and will in a few days start out on the same road to deliver. the machines, and he swears he won't shun that bridge. As the Engineer said to the little steer that stood in the track and pawed dirt at the aproaching engine, "I admire your pluck but blast your judgment."

THE EFFECTS OF THE USURY LAW.-We had our say about the Usury law before its passage. We told the Legislature and the people what its probable effects would be. The following paragraphs from papers in different sections of the State show plainly that what we said was true: "Maj. Bethel and family have moved to Danville. We learn that the Major will go into the banking business. He would have engaged in the same business at this place but for the passage of the usury bill. That unfortunate measure has already driven not less than one miltion of dollars from this section of the State."-Reidsville News. "We have been reliably informed that the pernicious influence of the usury law has already, at this early date since its passage, driven from the borders of our State $100,000. which has sought remunerate investment in the Western States."-Wilmington Journal.

Great Destruction of Property.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY NEWS.)

LOSSES AND INSURANCE,

Charlotte, N. C. April 17th, The most destructive fire we ever had, occured here yesterday evening commencing at 3 o'clock P. M. and continuing with great fury till 71 o'clock when the firemen succeeded in controlling the flames. ramblings through Orange county

The fire originated during a perfect hurricane of wind from the Steam cotton Compress Press at the North Carolina railroad depot. The eparks flew some thirty yards to a large plate. form full of Cotton adjoining the South Carolina depot, all of which took fire and burned together with all its contents. The flames were then communicated to the North Carolina R. R. platform and wooden depot, which was soon a mass of ruins with a large lot of cotton stored there. From this point the flames leaped to Peter Brown's old tan-yard. In dings were swept away. The kitchen of Col. W. R. Myers next caught and was soon in ashes. It was by the most heroic efforts of the firemen and citizens that the fine residence of Col. M. was saved from the wreck, All seats free. dings were swept away. burned entire. During the fire the greatest excitement prevailed, business was entirely suspended, and one and all worked manfully to save the city from destruction. THE COLD SNAP. -It was very unkind in old "prob," just as we had merged from one of the most severe winters on record, and a deluge of rain all the Spring, to coax our gardeners out with a few days of beautiful sunshine, and then "nip us off in the bud" with a blasting frost. The gardens in the city were looking as well as we ever saw them at this season; in some, cabbage plants had been set out. Irish potatoes were from four to six inches high, strawberries and garden peas in bloom, but yesterday morning the gardener arose to see the fruits of his toil blasted by the frost. Prof. Fairchilds, our leading truck farmer, informs us that one thousand dollars will not repay his loss by the frost, The fruit we hope is not so much injured, as it is thought to be too far advanced. The late fruit is doubtless cut off entirely. The weather is as cold as December, and unless there is an early change the damage will not stop where it is,

AN EARLY OPENING.-There is every reason to believe that there will be an unusally early opening of our watering places and Summer resorts this season ,and we would remind our proprietors to be in readiness for the rush. The appearance of yellow fever on the borders of our Southern States so early, is our reason for saying so. Even on the North Carolina coast, if we have no "Yellow Jack" its presence South of us is indicative of a similiar state of unhealthfulness with us. Again, we say hotelists get your houses in or-

BREAK CP THE DEN. There is in the neighborhood of the quiet and well ordered town of Cary, six miles west of this city, an organized band of theives and robbers that have of late committed a number of depredations on the farms of the good people of that section. It should be the duty of some one to apprehend these rascals and bring them to justice.

The Pastors of the different churches will please notify us on Saturdays of any changes that may occur in their pulpits. ... The growth of Cathologism in this country is something astonishing. The catholic church in the United States probably numbers eight million communicants. The Catholics occupy 6,920 stations, chapels and churches; they have the service of 4,873 priests, 6 apostolic vicars, 49 Bishops, 6 archbishops and one car-dinal. They have 18 theological seminaries with nearly 1,500 students; over 2,000 schools of all grades, and more than 3,000 asylums and hospitals. There are among them 7 different orders of monks and friars, 12 of nuns,8 different institutions such as Jesuits and Redemptorists, 12 congregations of priests and brothers and 30 sisterhoods. Louisiana starts off rather auspic lously, and it looks as if an era of peace is about to be inaugurated. The Conservatives will be conceded the House, but it seems inevitable that the pretender and plunderer Kellogg must continue to usurp the Executive functions. He promises well in his message, and will perform so much of his promises as he must. As anything is better than anarchy, the present compromise, since acquiesced in by the defrauded people generally, is probably best for the State. allers an unlucky man in a fight." VERY COMPROMISING .- The banks all over the country are compromi sing with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for their failure to have stamps affixed to checks. The amounts paid range from $25 to $500. The Commissioner does not desire to bring suits against the banks if he can avoid it. - Washington telegram-Baltimore Sun.

The Signs of Health.—Health invariably declares lise by visible signs. A person with a sallow, haggard visage and attenuated frame may declare that he is "in perfect heal h," but if he does, don't believe him. for he is not. His looks belie him, and his asseveration is merely brawado. Few persons, except hydochondriacs, desire to be thought unwell. A fresh complexion, a clear eye, a happy expression, and an absence of leanness, indicate that their possessor enjoysgood digestion, sound sleep and a vigorous circulation, three essentials of health which are fortunately not beyond the reach of invalids. The surest medium for their attainment is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by purilying the blood banish sallowness, and by promoting perfect digestion and sound sleep, keep the body well nourished, and impart to the face tile placid expression indicative of a clear and unwearied mind. The Bitters are far more conductive to good looks than any cosmetic that ever humbugged the credulous.

By invitation, Gov. Porter, an ex-Confederate officer, reviewed the Federal troops at Ash Barracks, Nashville, a few days since. The novelty of the scene attracted a crowd of between five and eight thousand people to the grounds .-On the appearance of Governor Porter and his civilian staff the band struck up "Hail to the Chief," followed by the national air, creating a great deal of enthusiasm.

A special telegram in another column gives an account of a most destructive fire in Charlotte on Friday afternoon, by which some 2,000 bales of cotton, together with a number of small houses were totally destroyed. We are glad glad to know, however, that the cotton destroyed was fully insured, and that our Charlotte friends will thus be prevented from sustaining any loss thereby.

In reviewing the Government statistics for the year 1874, the Southern Presbyterian Review extracts some startling figures as to the cost of various articles. Of those we reproduce three : "Salaries of ministers of the Gospel, $6,000,-000; cost of tobacco and cigars, $610,000,000; cost of liquor, $2,000-200,000." Pretty strong this, and it would go to show that the people of this country value tobacco and liquor above all other things.

THERE was celebrated in Philadelphia Tuesday the centennial anniversary of the "Pennsylvania Socithe Promotion of the Abolition of Slavery. Relief of Free Negroes Unlawfully Held in Bondage, and for Improving the Condition of the African Race." It was organized one hundred years before under the inspiration of Benjamin Frank-

THE New North State is so thor. oughly imbued with the idea, from contact with its own people, that there is no honesty in any party, that it contends the Democratic Convention, to convene in this city in August next, will unhesitatingly disregard the restrictions imposed upon it by the body which called it. It calls upon the Republican party to vote for ne man who is not in favor of adjourning the Convention immediately upon its assemblage. We are not surprised at those who have fattened under the Canby Constitution should now oppose the altering of the that miserable affair.

THE Washington Republican will have to open its batteries on Vice-President Wilson. He has been so unfortunate as to make the assertion that there are not a hundred Republicans in Massachusetts who favor the third term, and that he has not met a man who did not scout the idea. Grant, however, is determined to fight it out on that line, if it takes him a whole year, or even several of them. We had as soon see Grant defeated in 1876 as any other man in the Radical ranks, and if we can have our prefrence, we think he is the most suitable member of the Party of Plunder to be hoisted.

The immense deposits of guano off the coast of Peru have nearly been exhausted by the constant draft made upon them since their discovery a number of years ago. Fortunately, however, the great demand for a natural fertilizer like guano has resulted in a careful search for additional sources of supply. Many of these expeditions have been rewarded by the discovery of an article that serves as a substitute, although it lacks come of the qualities that rendered Peruvian so valuable to agriculturists. More recently an important deposit has been found off the coast of South America, in richness and extent the famous beds that have proved such a bonanza to the Peruvian government, which derived an immense revenue from the working of the guano beds within its jurisdiction. The quantity discovered though large is not likely to cause an appreciable difference in the price of the article, so farmers will have no further cause for congratulation than the fact that the supply is not likely to become exhausted at an early day.

NORTHERN VIEW OF THE IN-SULT TO OUR STATE BY THE PENNSYLVANIANS.

We copy the following from a well known exchange published in New York. The extract from the News is correctly copied, but we ourselves were misinformed at that time, Buford's people having cut the telegraph wires, it is said. The change was made in five daysnot in 29 hours-and the work of moving the rails, i. e., the actual widening, was commenced several hours after the passage of the act forbidding it:

QUICK CHANGE OF GAUGE IN NORTH CAROLINA-BUFORD'S VICTORY OVER THE LEGISLATURE.

"We must do Colonel Buford, President of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, the credit to say that in changing the gauge of the Greens-boro' and Charlotte line of his road in the short space of twenty-nine hours he displayed a degree of tact that has never been excelled by the reatest railroad king in the country. He completely euchered the Legislature of North Carolina, and made a full score before they turned a card. Immediately after the decision of the supreme court of the State was ren-dered in the case, the legislature set about to defeat, if possible, its results by fresh legislation. A bill for that ourpose was introduced in the Sente by Mr. Bell, and was passed in rapid time by a unanimous vote. went to the House, and after an animated discussion and at a late hour of the night, the bill was passed by a vote of 73 to 23. But it was too late. Colonel Buford also snuffed danger n the breeze, and determined to out egislate the legislature. By the employment of 800 hands, in the space fone Sunday and a single night, when officers of the law are never on duty, and injunctions are seldom ever issued, he set to work and succeeded in changing the gauge of his whole line of road to Charlotte in the space of twenty-nine hours! The Raleigh News of Tuesday says of this ledgerdemain: "CHANGE OF GAUGE.-There was no train west of Greensboro' yesterday, which was caused by the change of gauge being made. Eight hundred hands worked all Sunday, and on yesterday the entire work was completed, some eighty miles. Passengers can now travel from Richmond to New Orleans without a change of cars. Passengers going south from Richmond Sunday night were sent via the N. C. R. R. yesterday morning to Goldsboro', to be transported over the Wilmington and Weldon road. The Pullman with reversible went on to Goldsboro'. The Rich-mond train went through to Charlotte last night, the change of gauge having been completed at three o'clock P. M., on yesterday."

"So that before the law of the legislature could be perfected Buford had 'oleared the track' of all incum brances, and holds his position the decree of the Supreme Court in defiance of any new legislation. Pretty sharp work was that, and it entitles the President to a gold medal from the lessees of

It appears from the above extract which we find in the editorial columns of the Petersburg, Virginia, Daily News, that President Buford of the Richmond and Danville railroad company, a road controlled and of which a large majority of the stock is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is an apt disciple of his great exemplar in "sharp work," President Scott. It is gratifying to believe that public sentiment in our country is beginning to change as to the merits of this sort of work. Among other evidences of this, President Buford's feat seems to have caused great excitement in North Carolina with the public, as well as the legislature, which passed promptly and almost unanimously the following act, but not in time to prevent President Buford's work

"one Sunday and a single night." Our exchange then publishes the act of the General Assembly, ratified on the 15th of March, 1875, prohibiting the change of gauge under heavy penalties.

A REMAKABLE PET .- A French ournalist met with a strange pet the other day when paying a visit. While he was talking he noticed something moving on the carpet which was neither dog nor cat. On looking again he saw that it was a fine lobster, dark gray, spotted with red, and thought it must have escaped from the kitchen. The lady smiled and said: "I must tell you a history of my pet. Some months ago I bought a lobster, and as it was not wanted for dinner my cook left it in the water in the kitchen. I was going to a ball that night, and being ready I sat in my easy chair and fell asleep. Suddenly I sprang up from the pain of a sharp bite in my foot, and saw the lobster biting

I started up and ran to the kitchen. No one was there, and a cloth in front of the fire had caught fire. It was soon extinguished, but I have kept lobster ever since out of gratitude." It has its basin of cold water, and seems to recognize its mistres and is so fond of music that it is always drawn towards the piane henever she plays.

The Washington Atar speaks of "the clumsy unsightly, inconvenient obtrusive, diabolical and every way objectionable telegraph poles that now disfigure the streets." It is reported that another American Cardinal is to be appointed, the ope having determined to confer the berretta on Archbishop Bayley, of Baltimore, in recognition of eminent services and of the claims of that city as the Metropolitan See.

At the hanging of a murder in New Jersey on Friday, among the select few admitted as spectators was a blind man, who expressed himself north of Peru, which is said to rival as enjoying the sight heartily.

Mocdy and Sanky.

These two great revivalists, from Chicago, are now creating a great excitement in England. We append a synopsis of the remarks of the former at a meeting in Loudon:

When God wanted an ark built he called on one man to do it, instead of hundreds, and this man was a fool in the eyes of the world. The Lord did not send an army to bring Israel out of Egypt, but used a man who had been forgotten among his people, a man slow of speech, a stutterer. Enoch was no doubt regarded as a fool in his time; Noah was the laughing stock of his day, and we must be willing to be as fools in the sight of the world, if we want to be of use to God. Joshua going around the walls of Jerico was an absurd sight, How the London press would have come down from a scene like that! Fancy the Archbishop Canterbury going around London blowing rams horns! When the spirit of the Lord was on Samson he slew a thousand men with the jawbone of an ass. People were not willing to work that way in these days; they must have more polished instruments. How riducious must Gideon and his men with their pitchers have looked Yet every man stood in his place, and they routed the whole army. Elijah was fed by such unclean, contempti ble things as ravens; and when he was sent away it was not to a palace, but to the house of a poor woman, who scarcely had meal for herself. It was said this was an enlighted age; but God was unchangeable. He still used base and comtemptible things to effect his purpose. When he wanted a good book written he did not call upon a philosopher, but a Bedford tinker, and the devil had his match when he got hold of John Bunyan. Christ did not call around him the learned and the wise, but Galilean fishermen, and this handfui of men shook the world. Even before He used Saul He changed his name to Paul the Little. London did not want eloquence, but Christ and Him crucified. Let every man and woman spread the tidings of the salvation, and take the city for God. When the church, the pulpit, and the pew become of one mind, christianity would be like a red hot ball rolling over the earth, and all the hosts of death and hell would not be able to resist it. When Gen. Grant was before Richmond, he called a council of his officers who advised him to retreat, but before mornvance in solid column on the enemy at day-break." The result was the end of the rebellion. Christians in London should advance in solid column on the enemy, and success would follow.

GENERAL ALEXANDER E. SHIRAS, Commissary-General of the United States army, who died at Washington Wednesday, was a na-tive of Pennsylvania, and graduated from West Point in 1833. He entered the artillery branch of the service, and participated in the Florida and Mexican wars. During the Mexican war he was on duty in the Subsistence Department and subsequently as assistant to the Commissary-General at Washington. On this service he was continued throughout the rebellion. becoming Assistant Commissary-General of Subsistence, with the staff rank of Colonel, on the 9th of February, 1863. On September 17, 1864, he was breveted Brigadier-General, and on March, 13, 1865, Major-General, for his services during the war for the Union. On the 23d of June, 1874, he was appointed Commissary-Gen eral of Suosistance, with the rank of Brigadier-General.

Public interest on this question has not flagged, and will not flag, as long as there is any State pride left among us. This sentiment of State pride is ridiculed by such journals as the North State, who may be excused from the possession of any such principle, since they came into North Carolina for the loaves and fishes, and have the same pride in North Carolina they would have in Dahomey or Hayti or where else they might get their bread. Of that feel-ing which has its orgin in the names and deeds of the men of the past, and which delights to carry out the ideas of men revered for wisdom and honored for distinguished services, they are is insensible as oysters From such, we can only except what is prompted by self interest.

But the great body of the people have some regard to the traditions of the past, and to the wisdom of a policy settled upon years ago, and acted upon with undeviating purpose up to the moment of its rude interruption by the Pennsylvania Central.

Has it ever been fairly considered that upwards of eleven hundred miles of rail road in North Carolina are made subservient to this ninety odd miles between Greensboro and Charlotte, and that for the advantage of that section, the east is divi-ded from the west, and made tributary to a foreign corporation, and that at the same time the west loses almost its last hope of the extension of its roads? It may be said that the Western North Carollna R. R. has neither beginning nor ending for it is cut off at both ends, and is likely to remain in this mutilated form. Hillsboro Recorder.

THE NEW TWENTY CENT SILVER
COIN.—The design of the twenty cent silver piece authorized by act of Congress of March 3, 1875, were selected and approved yesterday by Hon. H.
R. Linderman, director of the Mint.
The obverse design contains a setting figure of "Liberty," with the word "Liberty" inscribed on the shield, the whole surrounded by thirteen stars. Beneath the figure thirteen stars. Beneath the figure the date "1875." On the reverse the the date "1875." On the reverse the figure of an eagle surrounded by the inscription, "United States of America," and beneath the eagle the words, "Twenty Cents." At Dr. Linderman's suggestion, the edge or periphery of the coin will be perfectly smooth, in order to distinguish it from the true firm controller. from the twenty-five cent coin, which bear a reeded or fluted edge. As the "E Pluribus Unum," or the motto,
"In God we Trust," both have been omitted. The new coin is manly intended for circulation in the Pacific coast States, where the want of such coin has long been felt in making change, and where the lowest coin in circutation is the dime or ten cent silver piece.-Nat. Rep. 15th.

An important decision was render ed by Judge Pearson at Harrisburg yesterday, declaring the tax on coal imposed by the act of 1874 unconsti-tutional. The case will of course go to the Supreme Court, where it will be heard at the earliest possible period, in view of the great importance of the issue. Should the court of last resort affirm Judge Pearson, the revenue of the Commonwealth will be entirely inadequate, and an extra session of the Legislature might be a necessity. The tax was decided to be unconstitutional under the clause of the new Constitution, which requires taxes to be imposed uniformly upon the same class of property.—

DITTONICING.

The Guanahani Guano Company has seen fit to publish a card to the effect that our "Cat Island Guano" is of an inferior quality to their importations, and had been rejected by them. From the reputation of the signers of that card, we presume they did not know that this statement was false. We propose to prove the satisfaction of that Company and of the public the following facts, wiz:

1st. That their agent at the Islands attempted (AND FAILED) to get control of deposits of Guano that were secured by a member of our firm who is now at the Islands.

2d. That our Cat Island Guano, according to the analysis of Professor White, of the University of Georgia, (who analyzed for the Guanahani Company,) is at least the equal of the Guano imported and sold by the Guanahani Company last spring in the cotton sections of Virginia and North Carolina.

Our Guano shall stand or fall by the crucial test of the analytical chemist, and not by cards put out on the eve of the planting season. We will have each cargo analyzed before its receives our brand, or is offered the public, and we will publish the report of the chemist. We invite the Guanahani Company to publish the analyses of each of the various lo's offered or sold by them last spring, that the public may decide.

We have been enabled to avoid the mistakes that the inexperience of the Guanahani Company betraged them isto last, year. We are not taxed with the enormous expenses for salaries, &c., pant by them, and with one of our firm on the Island, and one of the most experienced Guano men in the country as our General Agent. We are satisfied we can beat them in quality and price. We challenge them to meet us in the Island, and one of the most experience of Guano men in the country as our General Agent. We are satisfied we can beat them in quality and price. We challenge them to meet us in the Island; and one of the most experience of Guano men in the country as our General Agent. University of Georgia, Laboratory of Applied Chemistry, Athens, Ga., February 9th, 1875. WM. R. GRIFFITH, Esq., Gen. Agent Cat Island Guano, Richmond, Va: DEAR SIR-In reply to yours, I would say I am UNDOUETEDLY of the opinion that in most NATURAL GUANO* the forms of c-mbination of the valuable elements present are *UPERIOR to those which are artificially produced in manipulated fertilizers, and although this cannot enter as a factor in determining COMMERCIAL value, it INCREASES the relative AGRICULTURAL value of the Guanos to a considerble extent. Dear Sir:—In reply to yours, I must say that I am undoubtedly of the opinion that in most Natural Guanos the forms of combination of the valuable elements present are superior to those which are Artificially produced in manipulated fertilizers, and although this cannot enter as a leator in determining Commercial values, it increases the relative Agricultural value of Natural Guanos to a considerable extent.

Very truly yours, is no new or untried manure. It has been before the public for upwards of ten years, during which time it has been steadily growing in reputation, until it is now universally recognized as one of the most uniformly reliable concentrated fertilizers in the market. It is manufactured from the best and purest raw materials, every one of which is subjected to chemical analysis before being used. The purity of the fertilizer is thus assured. In addition to this, every step of its manufacture is conducted under the strictest chemical supervision, so that farmers are thus guarded at every point from any danger of using an inferior article. By purchasing their Cigars from the North, our Merchants enrich a class, that neither care for our community, and leave none of the money spent with them here, whilst the Cigar Manufacturers of Raleigh languish for reason of patronage from the very one's that ought to take a pride in building up home Manufacturers in their midst. There's no kind or style of Cigar that the Northern Factories make, that our Cigar Manufactorers cannot make also, and as for prices, we can give better satisfaction both in quality and cheapness, than the whole army of Commercial Agents that infest Raleigh in the interests of Northern Houses.

By encouraging Home Manufactures, Having been appointed Agents for Soluble Pacific Guano, and being convinced that it is a genuine article and no humbug, we take pleasure in recommending it to our friends as a first class Fertilizer. For testimonials plesse call at No. "Wilmington street.

By encouraging Home Manufactures, our Merchants will see our Cigar Fuctories (instead of being mere buriesques of Factories of modest appearance) large in size, flourishing in plenty of work, with twenty or thirty Cigar makers constantly making up stock for home consumption. Those men that our Manufacturers would employ would spend from three to four hundred dollars weekly, thereby benefitting the community at large and keeping the money where it ought to be at home. department of Texas, and ordered to the department of the Platte.

Capt. G. W. Smith ordered to report to the department of Texas, Fleet surgeon James Suddards of the north Atlantic fleet, writing to the navy department under date of Port Royal S. C. April 14th, in regard to the health of the crews of vessels attached to the fleet, and the existence of yellow fever at Key West and Havana. He says it was remarked at Key West and at Havana that the wind constantly blew from the eastward, so that there had not been a single Norther during the season,-When they are the most prevalent the average temperature at Key West from Dec. 11th to March 31st, 1875, has been more than six degrees above the average of that season of the year. In all probability the good health of the squadron at Key West at all times for the past year may be attributed in a great measure to the strict sanitary regulations observed.

Surgeon & u ldards then speaks of the departure of the Colorado and Plymouth from Havana on the 29th of March, upon learning that the yellow fever existed there, and their arrival at Key West where a board consisting of Surgeon Adrian Hudson of the Worcester acting asssistant surgeon, R. J. Perry in charge of the Medical stores at Key West, and surgeon Suddards, investigated the circumstance attending the reported appearance of yellow fever. There they found that three deaths had occurred from yellow fever of the most pronounced character, while of several other cases, the issue was still doubtful. During the few days that the fleet remained off Key West no new cases in the town were reported. Surgeon Suddards says all this time however a strong northeast wind had been blowing, cooling and purifying the air when the hot wea ther returns which is to be expected from day to-day. I very much fear-ed an outburst of the disease. It now only remains to state the general probabilities of health and disease of this station during the coming summer. I have heard that one operation expressed since early in the winter all the old residents of Key West with whom I came in contact invariably expressed themselves as fearful of a very sickly season. In Havana I made a point of asking the opinion of almost every one. On this point it was the same. A general oppression was felt and even the most conservative were com-pelled to acknowledge their In concluding his re port he says the increased tem perature of the past winter being degrees above the average, the undue prevalence of southerly and easterly winds and the absolute absence of northers during the whole winter. the general opinion existing among those who have had the best opportunity to observe, and from a ju ment, the actual appearance of low fever so early in the year both at Havana and Key West all combined. to favor the belief that any protracted stay of a large naval at either of these places might have a most calamitous result and moved therefore be in the highest degree improvident.

PETERSBURG, VA.

In offering this FERTILIZER to the Agricultural Community a Second Season we do so with the utmost confidence, feeling satisfied that the high opinion, we formed, and expressed last season based on its Chemical Constituents, have been most satisfactorily borne out by the test, by which all Fertilizers must be judged, that of the Plantation.

Last season, owing to the lateness at which we commenced importing, we were forced to put our Guanc on the market at once, but now having continued our importations during the summer and fall, and having large and well ventilated Warshouses in the city of Petersburg and at City Point, we are enabled to put our Guanc on the market, in a condition as to dryness and freedom from lumps, equal to any Manufactured Fertilizer.

in a condition as to dryness and freedom from jumps, equal to any manufactured Pertition.

We solicit a careful perusal of our Circular containing the certificates sent us, and which can be had on application at this OFFICE, or from any of our AGENTS. Having nothing to conceal, we made no innovation on established usage, by publishing those letters received unfavorable to our Guano, but careful inquiry in many cases proves that the cuse of its failure was not owing to any fault in the Guano, but to those far beyond our control. We have frequently heard the same complaints of its kindred Fertilezer, Peruvion Guano, but the concurrent testimony of well known Farmers and Planters from Maryland to the extreme Western countless of North Carolina, justify us in claiming place for our Fertilizer Superior to many, and second to NONE.

We confidently expect the continued vatronage of the Agricultural Community and no exertion will be spared on our part to make
